Affairs Bill Says:

SEE that down in Loessiany they're goin' to take a half-hitch in the high cost of livin' by raisin' bull-trugs for the market. They say the cost of livin' will, of course, in that manner take a jump, but it will jump down instead of up. "Minds me of a little experiment I tried some years ago with raisin' them animiles some years ago. I breed the frogs up and crosses 'em with kangaroo rats till they gets as heavy as fifteen pound and could jump in beat original sin. Dosen jumps out of a forty-foot high tank one day, cleans the valley in four hops and when I last seen 'em they was wauvin' over the Manzano mountains like airplane. The biggest one I had was named Ole Foghorn—made a noise like a steam siren, so much racket in fact that none of the wimmen in the presint could hear what their neighbors was sayin' over the party line. All right raisin' frogs if ye mussle 'em and chain 'em down,
